

BERENFELD'S GUSTAVO PEREZ NAMED PRESIDENT OF AMERICAN SOCIETY OF APPRAISERS' MIAMI CHAPTER

Gustavo Perez, a Partner with the South Florida accounting firm of Berenfeld Spritzer Shechter & Sheer LLP, has been appointed as President of the Miami Chapter of American Society of Appraisers' (ASA). An Accredited Senior Appraiser member of the ASA since (2008), Perez formally served as the organization's treasurer.

The American Society of Appraisers is the nation's oldest and largest interdisciplinary appraisal organization. Founded in 1936, the ASA includes the industry's top appraisal professionals who specialize in varying types of tangible and intangible property. ASA Accreditation is based on appraisal education, experience, comprehensive written examinations and a peer review of appraisal reports.

Perez currently serves as a Partner in Berenfeld's Litigation Support and Business Valuation practice. In this role, Perez provides valuation analyses and financial report compliance services for privately held domestic and international companies. In addition to work throughout South Florida and the U.S., Perez has handled a number of complex valuation and litigation work on behalf of companies in South and Central America.

Perez received a Master of Business Administration degree from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, and a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration from Universidad Metropolitana of Caracas, Venezuela.

Berenfeld Spritzer Shechter & Sheer LLP is one of the largest independent accounting firms in South Florida with offices in Coral Gables and Fort Lauderdale. Founded in 1971, the firm is composed of more than 150 professionals providing accounting, audit, tax, litigation-support, and advisory services. The firm serves as a trusted advisor to domestic and international business clients, the legal community and high-net-worth individuals. For more information, visit www.berenfildllp.com.