FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

EMERY SHEER ELECTED TREASURER OF THE PERFORMING ARTS CENTER TRUST

MIAMI — Emery Sheer, managing partner of the accounting firm Berenfeld Spritzer Shechter & Sheer LLP, has been elected Treasurer of the Performing Arts Center Trust (PACT) of the Adrienne Arsht Center for the Performing Arts of Miami Dade County.

Sheer applies his accounting and financial asset management skills to the portfolios of clients, including athletes, actors, musicians, stage and screen directors, entertainers, business owners and other high-net-worth individuals.

He is a Certified Public Accountant and a Certified Valuation Analyst. He also is registered with the SEC as an Investment Advisor. He is licensed by the Florida Department of Insurance in the areas of health, life and variable annuities and is a Yellow Book-approved auditor for government entities.

Sheer is a partner and CFO of White Buffalo Entertainment, an award winning documentary and film production company. He is currently a board member of various regional and national organizations, including the 2010 Super Bowl Host Committee, the Baptist Health System Foundation, The Beacon Experience, the Friends of WLRN Radio & Television and The Rock Foundation.

Sheer received a Bachelors of Arts in Music Education from Mansfield University. He also received a Graduate Studies degree in Accounting/Taxation from Florida International University and a Graduate Studies degree in Opera Performance from Boston University.
