DARYL JOYCE NAMED TO THE BOARD OF COCONUT GROVE CARES

MIAMI — Daryl J. Joyce, a principal of the accounting firm Berenfeld Spritzer Shechter & Sheer LLP, has been elected to the Board of Directors of Coconut Grove Cares, Inc., a non-profit organization dedicated to building a better community for children and families in West Coconut Grove.

Mr. Joyce was chosen for the position after providing Coconut Grove Cares with many hours of voluntary accounting assistance. A resident of Miami, he is a principal in Berenfeld's audit and assurance practice in Coral Gables.

Berenfeld Spritzer Shechter & Sheer LLP is one of the largest independent accounting firms in South Florida with offices in Coral Gables and Fort Lauderdale. Founded in 1971, the firm is composed of more than 200 professionals providing accounting, audit, tax, litigation support and consulting services. The firm serves as a trusted advisor to domestic and international business clients, the legal community and high-net-worth individuals. For more information, visit www.bsst-cpa.com.
